The Russ Ewald Center for Urban Service is in South Minneapolis. Our 56-bed retreat center serves the year-round programming of Urban Immersion Service Retreats, as well as houses staff offices for Kinship of Greater Minneapolis. Sleeping quarters have bunk beds with approximately four beds per room. There are communal bathrooms on each floor with private showers. Guests have access to a kitchen, stove, and fridge.

The cost to stay with us is $30/person/night, or for $37/person/night, we are able to provide you with an a la carte breakfast and lunch. To reserve a bed, a completed registration and non-refundable $25 deposit is required. The balance will be due upon your arrival. Make checks payable to Urban Immersion Service Retreats.
