

RETREAT RULES

Remember, you are guests:

- Treat people and property with respect and care.
- Since multiple groups may be at the center, please stay in the area designated for your group.
- Because other programs have offices at the Ewald Center, no one is allowed in the staff area.
- Out of respect for our neighbors, the deck is closed at 7 p.m.
- Stay with your group at service sites.

While at the Ewald Center:

- You are responsible for cleaning cups, bowls, silverware, etc you use.
- If you spill something, please clean it up!
- While in the building, sleeping room doors should be propped open a bit to keep temperature regulated.
- No food in the sleeping rooms! You are our guests...not the ants.
- The roof of our building and the roof off the deck are off-limits. You go on the roof, you go home.

Be safe:

- If you leave the building, you must go in a group with an adult leader.
- Do not prop outside doors open.
- Only retreat participants are allowed in the building.

Rules you already know, but just in case...

- Do not vandalize. This includes writing on the bunk beds.
- No smoking, drinking or drug use allowed.
- Boys are not allowed in girls' rooms, and girls are not allowed in boys' rooms.
